All communications must be addressed to M. S. Ward, Esq., Panola, Mississippi.

The Law of Newspapers.

Subscribers who do not give express to the contrary, are considered as owing to continue their subscription.

If subscribers order the discontinuance of their newspapers, the publisher continues to send them until all arrears are paid.

If subscribers refuse or neglect to pay their newspapers from the offices to which they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled the bills incurred by them discontinued.

If subscribers remove to other places not informing the publishers, and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.

M. S. Ward,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.
Panola, Miss.

Dr. R. J. Young.

AVING permanently located himself, tendered his professional services to the citizens of Panola and vicinity. His Office on the east side of the public square, where he can always be found, or at his boarding house (Love's), except when professionally engaged.

Dr. S. P. Lester.

OFFERS his professional services to the people of this vicinity. His Office on the east side of the public square, where he can always be found, when not professionally engaged.

Wm. J. Wren.

OFFERS his professional services to the public generally. His Office at Leland's store, Panola.

Dental Card.

R. J. BURDLEY, would respectfully inform his friends and the public that he has removed his office from the corner of Main and Adams streets, opposite United States Hotel, to rooms over Mr. Saddle's Store, on Main street, opposite Court Square, where he is prepared to pursue his profession in all its various branches, old and new improvements.

The only reference I give is six years' service in Memphis and vicinity. My office is over Mr. Wren's Saddlery Store, on Main street, opposite Court Square, where I can always be found. It would be better for patients from this country to make appointments, so that they may not clash with other appointments.
